MAKE THE 1% PAY 1%

At this Federal Election you, as a Dunkley elector, have a real choice. You can vote for the same old parties making promises you know they will never keep or you can vote for Independent Candidate Dr. Joseph Toscano. Made from the same mould as the early 20th century radical activist Louisa Dunkley, whom the electorate of Dunkley is named after. Dr. Joseph Toscano has the experience, intellect, courage and tenacity to ensure making the 1% pay 1% becomes a central plank of Australian politics during the next three years if he is elected as the Member for Dunkley.

Over 150 billion dollars per year can be freed up for public health, public education, public housing, public infrastructure, public renewable energy facilities and the funding of a social security system that looks after the needs of all Australians, not just those with the disposable income to buy the best health, housing and education services money can buy. The introduction of a:

- 1% stock market turnover tax (30 billion per year),
- 1% turnover tax for companies with a yearly turnover of more than two million dollars (30 billion per year),
- 1% financial services tax for every transaction above $50,000 (excluding the family home) (40 billion per year),
- The removal of GST tax deductions for companies that have a yearly turnover greater than 5 million dollars (50 billion per year), will not only provide massively increased funding for public services (35% increase), it will also allow the 5 million small businesses that employ more than 8 million Australians to compete against corporations that today legally pay minimal, if any, taxation.
