Public Interests
Before
Corporate Interests

“Putting public interests before corporate interests”

Who is PIBCI

PIBCI is a community based group seeking to challenge the current political strangle hold that the major parties have over politics.

We recognize that with the support of the community through electoral politics, within the workplace and community action, we can ensure all Australians, not just a small minority, can enjoy the fruits of this rich land.

Are you tired of seeing your taxes fund corporate welfare?

Our Aims

Our aim is simple: we want to put public interests before corporate interests by promoting a public perspective into the Australian political, social and cultural sphere. Its time to put public interests before corporate interests.

What can you do?

Make your voice heard and make it count by joining PIBCI. Your membership will help us get closer to the 550 members we need on the Australian Electoral Roll before we can apply for membership as an Australian federal political party.

Have your say about corporations paying voluntary taxation
